PRECIOUS METALS

Maintaining that “glow” is easy this season as metallic hues are dominating make-up counters. Whether it’s liquidised crystals, glistening shimmer or reflective pigments, here are beauty editor Fiona Corrigan-Robertson’s favourite gems

LUSCIOUS LIPS

For an ultra-shiny gloss, try ModelCo Lip Lights Glamour Gloss with built in LCD light and mirror $32 (left), or gloss pumped full of minute crystal particles, such as (from middle) Becca Glossy Lip Tint $40, YSL Golden Gloss $46, Dior Gloss Show $44, or add a little loose shimmer to your favourite lippy.

A SCENT OF SUCCESS

SHIMMERING POTIONS

The new “super serum” by La Prairie contains colloidal gold – a liquid suspension of 24-carat gold, quartz, liquid crystals and reflective pigments. Cellular Radiance Concentrate Pure Gold $930 (pictured). Somewhat more affordable, OmVeda skincare products are based on the ancient practice of Ayurveda, harnessing the rejuvenating properties of pure silver and gold leaf. Try Silver Day Cream $49.50. For luminosity and glow, try Clarins Instant Light Complexion Perfector $49.

BODY BEAUTIFUL

This truly is the ultimate in precious metal pampering – Linden Leaves Gold Oil $39.95 (pictured) contains 23-carat gold flakes. Also try Clarins Aftersun Shimmer Oil Spray $42, and if it’s a tan-enhancer you’re after, slather on the scented Bronzer from gloBody $57.

GET UP & GLOW

For overall illumination, add a little loose shimmer to your existing foundation or try ModelCo Luminosity Shimmer

Whip light-reflecting skin enhancer $34 (left) or Dior Bronze Brume de Poudre $79 (middle). To highlight cheekbones and subtly illuminate décolletages apply a sweep of Jane Iredale PurePressed Blush in Golden Apricot $50 (front).

A TWINKLE IN THE EYE

Ultra-fine shimmer powders can be applied to the eyes or mixed with powder to be dusted over your face and body, such as Becca Jewel Dust $39 (middle), Benefit Show Offs in High Roller $28 (top), Multimediakeup Shimma Nation Accents $27.50 in Bronze Malt (right). For an eye palette try Lancôme’s shimmery new Pop Cherub $89.

DIPPED IN LIQUID METAL

Make the switch from last season’s black, pseudo-gothic chic to nails dipped in platinum. The new twist to a French manicure is to paint the tip of the nail with silver polish. My picks (from left) are Zoya in Trixie $15, Designer Brands Manicure Magic in Silver Glitter $4.99, Hawley #106 $7.95.
